GREAT EVENT THIS AFTERNOON.

Two-Miles-a-Minute Race and Speed King Crowning Attracting Thousands. Races This Morning.

Thousands of people will again go to the Ormond-Daytona Beach this afternoon, to see the feat of Two-Miles-a-Minute accomplished. The Stanley steamer, which car is regarded as having the best chance at capturing the Speed King trophy, is ready for the race. Not a moment was lost after the accident in getting the wonder in trim.

It has been leaked out that a protest has been entered against the 200-horsepower Darracq brought from France by Hemery. If the protest is sustained, the powerful French car, will be out of the race, and the Stanley car will, in that case, have the contest all its own way. The indications are that the Darracq car will be run in the great event.

EVENTS THIS AFTERNOON.

According to the schedule of events as arranged for this afternoon, events Five and Nine, 10 miles each, will be run together. The machines will start at the sixteenth and finish at sixth mile post.

Event 17, Ten Miles Open Handicap, to contestants who start in the previous events. To be run from the sixteenth to sixth mile posts.

Event 3, Two-Miles-a-Minute, from Daytona Club House to mile post eight.

Event 10, One Mile Middleweight Championship from Daytona Club House to nine mile post.

RACES RAN THIS MORNING.

The Fifteen Mile Open Championship event and the Thirty Mile Free For All Championship race for American cars, was held on the Ormond-Daytona Beach this morning, with Walter Christie the winner in the thirty mile event, and the White Steamer in the fifteen mile race. The race was run from the sixteen mile post to the first mile post and then the turn was made, and the cars came on the homeward stretch, another fifteen miles, making the total of thirty miles.

There were but few people on the beach, the race was uninteresting and the time was slow.

CROWNING THE SPEED KING.

After the Two-Miles-a-Minute race, the Speed King will be crowned by Miss Mary Smirall, of Ormond, and presented by her with the handsome Times-Union trophy.

The ceremony will take place before the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association. A large platform has been erected and elaborately decorated with flags, bunting and with potted plants and other greenery. The railing will be decorated with roses and other rich flowers in honor of the big event which is to take place there.

NOW ENDING PROSECUTION.

Government's Side of Famous Post Case Will be Concluded Tomorrow.—Interesting Testimony.

The Government's side of the case against Mrs. Helen Wilman-Post is nearing a close, and it is probable that the defense will begin their testimony in Mrs. Post's behalf on Tuesday morning. Eleven witnesses were examined. The first was E. F. Britton, a printer, who had printed circulars and periodicals for Mrs. Post. He was called to identify some papers.

Mrs. Daisy Dryer testified as to seeing Mrs. Post write what purported to be testimonials from patients, and these testimonials were published in Freedom. While this witness had not seen Mrs. Post use any data from which to write these testimonials, she could say however that they were not taken from a letter received from a patient.

Dr. J. M. Jones testified as to prescribing medicine for the defendant, but he could not say that she had taken the medicine.

R. D. Smith, of Doughsville, Ga., testified as to Mrs. Post living in that place at the time he lived there, before her removal to Florida, but had not witnessed the scenes described in a pamphlet issued by Mrs. Post.

Miss Lillian Allen testified that she had formerly worked for Mrs. Post, and had answered as many as seventy-five letters per week, and as a rule these were sent off without Mrs. Post seeing them.

Mrs. R. B. Ricker, of South Lake Weir, identified certain letters as being letters received by her from Mrs. Post. The letters were in regard to Mrs. Post treating a sister of the witness for lung trouble. The treatment was to be through the witness although the sister was in Boston, the witness at South Lake Weir and Mrs. Post at Seabreeze.

Mrs. Hester A. Bernard, of Seabreeze, testified that she had worked for Mrs. Post as a clerk and had written letters for her in answer to applications for treatment. She had also studied mental science treatment as taught by Mrs. Post. This witness identified certain letters as having been written by her to Mrs. C. S. Faulk, who desired treatment for her brother to cure him of the liquor habit.

Mrs. C. S. Faulk was the next witness. She said that she lived at Milton, Fla., and that she had applied to Mrs. Post for treatment for her brother. She said she sent $6 per month to Mrs. Post and took the treatment for her brother for four months. The letters from Mrs. Post to this witness were identified by the witness and read to the jury. In these letters Mrs. Post gave assurances that she could cure the brother of the witness of the liquor habit.

W. J. Brantley, of Santa Rosa County, testified as to writing to Mrs. Post in regard to treatment for a friend who was troubled with an affection of the eyes. He had been informed that she would take the case for $10 per month.

VANDERBILT'S DEPARTURE.

Left the Ormond-Daytona Beach Saturday Afternoon in His Private Car For New York City.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt, one of the best known automobilists in the world, and owner of the big 250-horsepower racing car, left Saturday afternoon, for New York, in his private Pullman car Wayfarer, of the New York Central Railway.

Mr. Vanderbilt was on the beach Saturday for a short time, and attracted much attention.

His big racing machine will be shipped North in a few days.

During the week Mr. Vanderbilt had Satori, the driver, and seven other men, at work on the great machine, but they could not get it in readiness for the race tournament.

"Senator" W. J. Morgan expects to leave tomorrow for Palm Beach.

*FOR RENT—6 room cottage well furnished, with bath and toilet, on Pine Street, Daytona Beach, fourth house south of M. E. Church. Mrs. E. J. Wright. 29-4

Daytona is again besieged by several short change artists, and the police force is making every possible effort to locate and arrest the parties now operating in the city. Several merchants have already been victims of these smooth artists.

The finish of the great automobile meet of 1906 finds the Hotel Ormond with a far greater number of guests than was expected, and the regular attractions are now coming to the front and claiming their share of attention, among them, golf which even in the excitement and rush of the races had a few faithful followers, will now be more in evidence. Mr. Merritt, the greens-keeper, has the links in their usual good condition and several handsome trophies are already up. The tennis courts and the swimming pool are scenes of much merriment and the more sedate devote the day as well as night to Bridge, which knows no abatement of interest nor limit as to time.

Trophy Presentation.

Saturday night, in the presence of a brilliant assemblage gathered in the parlors of the Hotel Ormond, Walter Clifford-Earp was presented with the token of his splendid victory.

A large British flag was draped gracefully from one of the arches, and as the hotel orchestra struck up God Save the King, a large English flag was carried forward. Immediately following came Mr. and Mrs. Clifford-Earp, and Mr. Earp's efficient assistant, Frank Baler. Great applause greeted their entry, escorted by some of the most prominent of the guests of the hotel.

When the music subsided, John C. Wetmore of New York, on behalf of the Automobile Association and the Minneapolis Automobile Club, presented the plucky Englishman with the token of his wonderful skill, making but a few short and appropriate remarks.

The nervy driver responded modestly, promising his many admirers that in the events yet to be run off, he would do his best to sustain his own record and that of his Napier.

A Poem for Today

DOWN TO SLEEP

By Helen Hunt Jackson

NOVEMBER woods are bare and still;
November days are clear and bright;
Each noon burns up the morning chill;
The morning's snow is gone by night;
Each day my steps grow slow, grow light,
As through the woods I reverent creep,
Watching all things lie "down to sleep."

I never knew before what beds,
Fragrant to smell and soft to touch,
The forest lifts and shapes and spreads;
I never knew before how much
Of human sound there is in such Low tones as through the forest sweep
When all wild things lie "down to sleep."

Each day I find new coverlets
Tucked in, and more sweet eyes shut tight;
Sometimes the viewless mother bids
Her ferns kneel down full in my sight;
I hear their chorus of "Good night,"
And half I smile and half I weep,
Listening while all lie "down to sleep."

A Hymn for Today

CONSOLATION

By Thomas Moore

THOMAS MOORE (Dublin, May 28, 1779—Hermosa, Feb. 28, 1853), the celebrated Irish poet and singer of love songs, was also the writer of about thirty hymns. These were published in 1806, and among them, under the title of "Relief in Prayer," is found the beautiful hymn which is today so often sung on occasions of mourning. While few if any of Moore's poems retain the place they once held in popular appreciation and almost all his other hymns are forgotten, the comforting thought in this poem has given it a place of permanency along with the other great English hymns.

COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish;
Come to the mercy seat, fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

Here see the Bread of Life; see waters flowing Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Obituary.

Rebekah Garfield Ladd, daughter of Mrs. Ella M. Ladd, of Seabreeze, Fla., was injured internally by coasting, January 13th, near the seminary, where she was at school in East Northfield, Mass.
She lived until January 26th. She was a member of the Congregational Church, in Daytona, Fla., and was a bright and interesting young lady, nearing her seventeenth birthday. The funeral was held in East Northfield, Mass., and the burial beside her father, Charles R.
Ladd, in the cemetery at Springfield, Mass.

Death of Mr. Corson.

Stephen T. Corson died at his home at Daytona Beach, last evening after an illness of several weeks.

The deceased was about 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and daughter, Miss Bessie, and a little son, Stephen.

Mr. Corson came here about a year ago from Washington, N. C. He has, since his residence in Daytona, made a number of warm friends, who will be grieved to hear of his demise.

The remains will be shipped tomorrow to Washington, N. C., for interment.

The Sibylline Books.

It is reported that the most seventh emperor of Rome, that an old woman came to him with nine books,
which contained, she said, secret oracles.
The emperor was much pleased for them, and when the emperor refused she flew into a rage, threw three of the books into the fire and still asked the same price for the remainder. The emperor again refused, and she thereupon threw three more into the fire and still asked the same price for the three remaining. This so astonished the emperor that he bought the three at the price for which in the first instance he might have had the nine. These were the Sibylline books, and their contents were long looked upon by the Romans
as divine oracles.

Ants as Bitter.

Ants are terrible fighters. They have very powerful jaws, considering the size of their bodies, and therefore their method is by biting. They will bite one another and hold on with a wonderful grip of the jaws, even after all of their legs have been bitten off by other ants.
Sometimes six or eight ants will be clinging with a death hold to one another, making a peculiar spectacle, some with a leg gone and some with half the body gone. One singular fact is that the grip of an ant's jaw is retained even after the body has been bitten off and nothing but the head remains.

A Curious Will.

By the terms of the will of one Dr.
Wilke of St. Ives parish, Huntingdon shire, England, his trustees were directed to spend £50 in the purchase of a piece of land in St. Ives, the annual rent of which was to be set aside for the purchase of six Bibles at a cost of 7 shillings each. To decide who shall have them he requested his trustees to "prepare a saucer with three dice upon the altar table of the parish church and let the Bibles be raffled for."

The Wrong Man.

Fair Visitor—Here, my poor man, are some roses for you. What can I do to unlike you comfortable? Prisoner—
Guess you're making a mistake, lady.
Fair Visitor—Mistake? How? Prisoner—I'm only here for porch climbing.
Verily find the guy that killed his wife
in the next cell.—Cleveland Leader.

Thoughtfulness.

She—Now wasn't it thoughtful of me
to go out early and gather those flowers for the breakfast table? He (kissing her)—Fine! Where's the coffee?
She—Oh, but I can't think of everything, darling, can I?—Life.

Coughing Saves Your Life.

A cough is the response to a danger signal which says that something is irritating the delicate mucous membrane which lines the air passages leading to the lungs. This cause of irritation may vary, but in the common cough of winter it is some offending matter, which nature seeks to clear off and expel by means of the compelling cough lest it should block the bronchial tubes and cause suffocation. The sensitive nerves that belong to these vital tubes act as sentinels and send a message for succor to the brain, which at once responds to the call by dispatching orders to the chest muscles. These then contract violently with one accord and force out the air in a cough, which carries with it the cause of irritation.

The Fox and the Roek.

A writer in Land and Water, an English publication, says: "Few would consider the fox an enemy of the rook and yet he is an inveterate foe whenever he gets a chance. It is doubtful if he would stick a tooth into a tough old rook if opportunity permitted it, but a young rook is a delicate reynard much appreciated and which he often enjoys. If a rookery and a litter of cubs exist in the vicinity of each other,
the vixen belonging to the latter spends most of her time during a rough night beneath the trees and busily carries the blown out nestlings
to her youngsters."

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRactions.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amplexoid climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macadam and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinement of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelties, an opera house, electric light, for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze, or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect as comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has won a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see well-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebb tide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the gray-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one-half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, a opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abode of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.
At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 400 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalla, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.
Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

On Sunday, the 21st, the groom left DeLand for Daytona to see the auto races, but, instead of stopping here, he went to Jacksonville, where he was joined by the bride and her sister, Mrs. J. Hall Brunsey. The party then went to Savannah, where the nuptial knot was tied. The couple on their return spent a few days at The Clarendon, at Seabreeze. They are now located at the Putnam Inn, in DeLand.
